

SINGLE-CHARITY FUND

Invest in one charity's future

A Single-Charity Fund allows you to support one nonprofit over time through strategic, tax-advantaged giving.

Benefits of a Single-Charity Fund

When one ministry holds a special place in your heart, a Single-Charity Fund helps you support it with greater intention and flexibility. You give to your fund when the timing is right, then grant in a way that fits your giving strategy and the charity's needs over time.

Support one ministry long term

Create a steady stream of support for a charity you care deeply about.

Give over time – not all at once

Give to your fund in high-income years, then grant to the charity thoughtfully over time.

Grow future support

Invest your balance to help grow future support for the charity you choose.

Invite others to give to the fund

Use an NCF donate button to make it easy for others to give to the fund.

Giving beyond cash

NCF and its affiliated ministries accept a wide variety of assets – often in ways that create tax efficiencies. You may be able to give publicly traded stocks, mutual funds, privately held business interests, real estate, and other appreciated assets.

How it works

Each step is designed to help you support one ministry with greater intention and flexibility.

Explore your options

Talk with your local NCF team to determine whether a Single-Charity Fund is the right fit for your giving goals.

Open the fund

Complete a simple application and name the charity you would like your fund to support.

Make gifts and support your ministry

Make gifts to your fund, then grant over time to provide ongoing support.

Use your IRA to support one ministry

If you're 70½ or older, a qualified charitable distribution (QCD) from your IRA can be directed to a Single-Charity Fund, allowing you to support one ministry directly from your IRA while potentially reducing taxable income.

The NCF difference

When you open a Single-Charity Fund with NCF, you're choosing more than a giving tool. You're choosing a like-minded giving partner for the entire giving journey. We help you simplify generosity today and make thoughtful, faith-aligned decisions for greater impact over time.
